

LOCAL TEAM TRANSFORMS FORTUNES OF NATION'S SPORTS CLUBS

If you're the director of a sports club, what do you do if your club needs serious investment in its facilities – but is struggling to balance the books?

The solution to this problem, which is facing sports clubs across the country, is being offered by Sports Solutions GB Limited, a Swindon-based company.

Sports Solutions GB has identified that clubs with grounds in town centres are able to release asset value by selling their grounds and reinvesting the proceeds into high quality, new facilities at the edge of town.

Chris Bevan, managing director said: "Community sports clubs are led by highly motivated and passionate individuals, who are determined to do their best for their communities. Our specialists help these individuals redevelop their clubs, creating facilities that meet 21st century requirements."

Chris is supported by former Manchester United, QPR and Swindon Town FC player, Fraser Digby who said: "Having enjoyed a fabulous career in football, I now want to give something back to sport."

"With Sports Solutions GB, I believe that we can bring sports clubs premiership quality planning, support and understanding, ensuring that they are able to involve more people in enjoying sports."

As the nation looks forward to the 2012 London Olympics, there is a real commitment from the nation's sports bodies to support community sport. Sports Solutions GB is able to help sports clubs benefit from a range of funds.

The company has a director, Anna Kocerhan, specialising in grant aid, helping clubs understand the opportunities and meet the key criteria.
